MINUTES OF PROCEEDINGS

The following is the true and certified record of the proceedings had before this Court on the day of Final Judgment, the multitude of every nation, tribe, people, and tongue assembled within the chamber and gathered without in the streets of the City awaiting the verdict.

DATE OF PROCEEDING	The Last Day — the Day appointed unto Judgment
PRESIDING	The Honorable Ancient of Days, Judge of All the Earth
BAILIFF / HERALD	The Archangel, Captain of the Host
CLERK OF THE COURT	The Recording Angel, Keeper of the Books
FOR THE PLAINTIFF	Heaven's Counsel, the Advocate with the Father
THE DEFENDANT	Satan, appearing by his own hand and with his clerks
SECURITY OF THE COURT	The Holy Angels, posted North, South, East, and West, for safety, for order, and for judgment

RECORD OF PROCEEDINGS

1. The Court convened. The Bailiff called the chamber to order with the proclamation "ALL RISE," and every soul within and without rose, and every knee bowed. The Ancient of Days was seated, and the Court declared, "You may be seated."
2. The books were opened. The Court noted for the record the assembly of the innumerable multitude and the posting of the Holy Angels on all four sides of the chamber.
3. Plaintiff's Counsel stated the charges against the Defendant per Exhibit 1-A (Schedule of Charges), the counts being too vast to read in full, and prayed for relief: that the Defendant be barred forever, cast into the lake of fire, his conspirators receiving the like, court costs (the whole of creation) restored to the One who paid them, and the judgment entered final and without appeal.
4. The Defendant rose and, in the office of accuser, uttered Counter-Complaints Nos. 1 through 3 against parties among the Redeemed, to wit: Grace Adaeze, Samuel Boon, and Mara, reciting sins as though presently held against them, and demanding they be cast out with him. The Court noted that accusation is the whole of the Defendant's speech, and that there is no truth in him.
5. The Court directed the Defendant to produce the record confirming his accusations: "Every commandment broken is written somewhere. Show Me the documents."
6. The Defendant tendered Defendant's Exhibits D-1 through D-∞ (the purported Ledgers of Accusation) and moved to read the same into the record, professing them to contain the sins of the accused.
7. Upon inspection, each leaf of every ledger was found BLANK — and so it had been since the Cross, the sins recited having been blotted out and remembered no more. The Defendant, perceiving what was not there, continued to read aloud from empty pages, unaware, and could produce no document, no record, and no case. The Court found there had never been a case, only accusation. The Court so noted.

8. Plaintiff's Counsel tendered Plaintiff's Exhibit P-1, the Lamb's Book of Life, wherein were found written the names of every party the Defendant had accused, entered not in accusation but in claim, in the blood already paid.
9. RULING. The Court found that the sins recited by the Defendant are, by the finished work of the Cross, forgotten — not held, not recorded, not remembered — and that the accusation itself was therefore false witness against what does not exist. The Counter-Complaints were OVERRULED and dismissed with prejudice. The accuser was overruled.
10. The Court took up the charges against the Defendant upon Counts I through V (as set forth in the Verdict and Final Judgment entered herewith). The records supporting these counts did not vanish.
11. Findings were entered and the verdict of GUILTY returned upon every count.
12. SENTENCE PRONOUNCED. The office of accuser was abolished with the Defendant in it. Sentence of the lake of fire, for the age of ages, was pronounced.
13. EXECUTION. Sentence was executed forthwith. The floor of the chamber opened beneath the Defendant, and he was drawn down, sinking through the floor into the pit prepared, and the place of his standing was made whole and seamless.
14. The Appendix of Conspirators was called. Each spirit that followed the Defendant received his disposition — the same lake, the same age of ages — and was likewise drawn down after him.
15. Judgment was entered FINAL. The motion to forbid appeal was GRANTED, there being no higher court and no venue beyond this One.
16. The great doors were opened and the verdict proclaimed to the waiting multitude. The Court adjourned into eternity.

Docket of the Last Day

Capital Cause

VERDICT AND FINAL JUDGMENT

This cause having been tried to conclusion before the Ancient of Days, the evidence having been received and weighed, and the multitude standing witness, the Court enters the following findings, verdict, sentence, and final judgment.

FILED
THE LAST DAY
ENTERED FINAL

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. The Defendant's sole utterance before this Court was accusation. He is the father of lies, and there is no truth in him; when he speaks he speaks his own tongue.
2. The sins recited by the Defendant against the Redeemed are, by the finished work of the Cross, forgotten — blotted out, cast into the depths of the sea, remembered no more. In the reckoning that governs this Court they are not held, not recorded, and do not stand.
3. The Defendant's accusations therefore correspond to nothing. Each was false witness against a thing that is not — the lie being not in the deeds once done, but in the charge that they are still held.
4. The purported ledgers were found blank, and had been blank since the Cross. The Defendant, unable to perceive the emptiness of his own record, continued to read from pages that bore no writing — an entity in denial, unaware that what he accused had been taken away.
5. The names of the accused stand written in the Lamb's Book of Life, in the blood already paid. They are the Redeemed, and their sin is remembered against them no more.
6. The Defendant did not know what he did at the Cross; had he known, he would not have crucified the Lord of glory. In that same ignorance he blotted the very record he now cannot read.

THE VERDICT

Upon Counts I through V, and upon the whole of Exhibit 1-A, the Court finds the Defendant, Satan, GUILTY — on every count, without exception, the supporting record standing and not vanishing, for it was written by a hand the Defendant could not reach.

The Counts sustained: (I) false accusation of the Redeemed, day and night, bearing false witness against sin already forgotten; (II) deceit as a trade, appearing as an angel of light while selling darkness; (III) the murder of the innocent and corruption of the young, per Exhibit 1-A; (IV) impersonation of the Most High, the oldest theft; and (V) being the father of lies, deceived even as to himself, unaware of the emptiness of his own charges to the last.

SENTENCE & ORDER

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED:

1. The Counter-Complaints are OVERRULED and dismissed with prejudice as false witness against what does not exist. The parties named therein — and all whose names are written in the Book of Life — are CLEARED, their sin remembered no more, and are released to come home.

2. The office of accuser is ABOLISHED with the Defendant in it. There is no more accuser, no more night, and nothing left for him to misread.
3. The Defendant is CAST DOWN into the lake of fire prepared for the devil and his angels, there to remain for the age of ages; the sentence not being consumption into nothing, but endurance of that which he sought to hand the Redeemed.
4. The Appendix of Conspirators shall receive the judgment of the one they served — the same lake, the same age of ages, the same final word — and shall be cast down after him.
5. Court costs — the whole of creation — are RESTORED to the One who paid them, the same having never been in the Defendant's keeping.
6. This Judgment is FINAL. The motion to forbid appeal is GRANTED. No appeal shall lie, an appeal requiring a higher court, and there being none above this One. There is no venue, no rehearing, and no reversal. The last court has spoken.

SO ORDERED. Let the ones whose names are in this Book come home. The accuser has no more to say to them, and no more to say at all.
